There were also some mouth watering lucky draw prizes on offer, the prime among them was a Pre-Wedding Portraiture Shoot by none other than the "Dream Team" themselves, all seven of the Signature Photographers.

The lucky winners of this grand prize, Eric Ng Kian Lik and Ng Ho Yan were elated to have won the prize.

The happy winners

Hosted by Ann Lee and Nigel Skelchy of Just Heavenly, the presence of local celebrities Will Quah and Nell Ng who were special guests, added further gloss to the event which was a first of it's kind workshop in seeing the coming together of seven well respected and talented photographers from the wedding industry.

With the primary aim of bringing International Standards to Malaysia, setting and maintaining standards of professionalism and generally lifting the profile of the wedding photography industry, the Signature Photographers look well equipped (Most are International Award Winning Photographers) and are looking well on their way to achieving these goals if the very evident togetherness of the group is anything to go by. Seen to be openly providing each other with emotional and moral support by way of hugs and cheers before and after each presentation, the group demonstrated a closeness rarely found in groupings as large as one that contains 7 different individuals.

Consisting of the founders of 7 wedding photography studios, The Signature Photographers are made up of:

- Jim Liaw (Jim Liaw Photography),
- Patrick Low (Exes Studio),
- Edmund Tham (Edmund Tham Photography),
- Zung (The Photoz),
- Louis Pang (Louis Pang Studio),
- Jason Victor (Camwork Weddings) and
- Jenny Sun (Jenny Sun Photography)

The group were quick to point out that the event was organized with the support of various sponsors such as WeddingsByEternal, Pretty in White, Nikon, Photobook, De Rain Atelier, Just Scan, Classic & Vintage, Beauty Haven, Weddingsle, EventsWizards and many others. According to a spokesperson, "Great Photo, Great Eyes" was to be the first of many more events and activities from the talented group.

It was also revealed that the projects that they were looking to embark on does not only include awareness and education, but also charity as all 7 of them revealed that "giving back" was something close to their hearts.
